Notes for filling in the claim form

About this form

The Housing Benefit and Council Tax Benefit claim form has been specially designed to be easy to fill in. It is long, but we have to ask a lot of questions to make sure that everyone who claims gets the right amount of benefit.

You may not have to fill in all parts of the form, but you must fill in any part that is relevant to you. Every part starts with a question to help you decide if you need to fill in that part.

Second Adult Rebate

Second Adult Rebate is Council Tax Benefit you can get if you share your home with someone who:

- is not your partner; and
- is 18 or over; and
- is on a low income; and
- does not pay you rent.

If you are claiming Second Adult Rebate, only fill in Parts 1, 3, 13 and 15.

Evidence

We need to see evidence of some of the things you tell us about. The checklist at the end of the form will help you. If you are not sure if we need to see evidence of something, get in touch with us. We will tell you what we need to see. We cannot pay you benefit until we have seen the evidence we have asked for.

How we collect and use information

We will use the information you give in this form, and in any supporting evidence you send us, to process your claim for Housing Benefit, Council Tax Benefit and other Welfare Benefits.

We may pass the information to other agencies or organisations such as the Department for Work and Pensions and HM Revenue and Customs, as allowed by law.

We may check information you have provided, or information about you that someone else has provided, with other information we hold. We may also get information about you from certain third parties, or give them information, to:

- make sure the information is accurate; and
- prevent or detect crime; and
- protect public funds.

These third parties include government departments, local authorities and private-sector companies such as banks and organisations that may lend you money.

We will not give information about you to anyone else, or use information about you for other purposes, unless the law allows us to.

The Council is the data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act. If you want to know more about what information we have about you, or the way we use it, please ask us.

When Benefit has been awarded Once your claim for benefit has processed, your claim will be reviewed at regular intervals. This may involve a visit to your home from our Visiting Officer which may be un-notified. Alternatively we may send you a form by post for you to complete and return to the Council with all relevant supporting evidence.

Changes you must tell us about

 Tell us straightaway if:

- any of your children leaves school or leaves home; or
- anyone moves in or out of your home (including lodgers and subtenants); or
- your income or the income of anyone living with you, including benefits, changes; or
- your capital, savings or investments change; or
- you or anyone living with you becomes a student; goes on a Youth Training Scheme; goes into hospital or a nursing home; goes into prison; or gets, changes or leaves a job; or
- your rent changes; or
- you move house; or
- you or your partner are going to be away from home for more than a month; or
- you receive any decision from the Home Office; or
- anything you have told us about changes.

You must tell us about these changes in writing – a phone call is not enough.

If you don't tell us about these changes, you may lose money you are entitled to or you may get too much benefit.

You must make sure that you tell us about these changes. Don't rely on someone else to pass on the message.

It is an offence not to tell us about any change of circumstance that affects your benefit. We may take court action against you. If we pay you too much benefit, you will probably have to pay it back.

If you are just claiming Second Adult Rebate, only fill in Parts 1, 3, 13 and 15 of this form.

Part 17 Checklist

Please tick to tell us what evidence you are sending with this form. We must see original documents, not copies. If you bring them to our reception, we will take the details we need and give you the documents back straightaway.

If you do not provide all the evidence we need, we might not be able to pay you any benefit. We need the same evidence for your partner, if you have one, and for any other adults living in your home.

If you cannot send the evidence we need at the moment, send the form back to us now and send the evidence later. We can start to process your claim, but we will not be able to pay you any benefit until we have all the evidence. Please tell us now in Part 14 if you cannot supply the evidence within one month.

Evidence of identity

Such as a birth certificate, marriage certificate, passport, National Insurance number card, medical card, driving licence, UK residence permit, current Home Office letter, EU identity card or recent gas or electricity bill. We may need to see several of these documents for each person.

Evidence of National Insurance number

Such as a National Insurance number card, payslips or letters from social security or the tax office.

Evidence of savings, investments and property

Such as all your bank, building society or post office books, full bank statements, or certificates for premium bonds, National Savings Certificates, ISAs, Tessas, stocks, shares and unit trusts. We need to see evidence of any interest or dividends you get on investments and savings. The evidence you send must show details for at least the last 3 months.

Evidence of earnings

This means your last 5 payslips if you are paid every week, your last 3 payslips if you are paid every 2 weeks, or your last 2 payslips if you are paid every month. We can send a form to your employer to fill in if you do not have these payslips. If you or your partner are self-employed, we need to see your accounts for the last financial year or, if you have been trading for less than 6 months, a summary of your trading records so far. We can supply a form.

Evidence of other income

Such as pension slips from a former employer or a letter from the court showing how much maintenance you are getting. We need to see evidence of any money people pay you for board and lodgings.

Evidence of benefits, allowances, tax credits, pension credits or pensions

Such as current award notices or letters from the Department for Work and Pensions confirming how much you get. If you do not have evidence, let us know straight away. Please do not send order books through the post.

Evidence of private rent and tenancy

Such as a rent book, rent receipts, a tenancy agreement or a letter from your landlord, or we can supply a form.

Evidence of other money paid out

Such as letters about student grants or maintenance, or agreements or receipts from registered child carers.

You can have any Housing Benefit paid to you or you can ask to have the benefit paid straight to your landlord. Some landlords may insist on this as part of your tenancy agreement. Please tick the box and complete the details below for the method of payment you prefer. You can detach this page and send it later. DO NOT DELAY YOUR CLAIM.
